OFFICE OF
THE DEPUTY MINISTER OF THE INTERIOR
OTTAWA, CANADA.

Ottawa, January 13th, 1921.

Sir Eugene,-

You will no doubt remember the interview which General E. A. Cruikshank, Chairman, and the other members of the Historic Sites and Monuments Board had with you regarding the co-operation of your Department in connection with the restoration and preservation of military historic sites in Canada, which were no longer required by your Department for military purposes.

The Board in reviewing historic sites were of the opinion that the sites mentioned hereunder are of national historic importance and have recommended that they should receive attention in the way of restoration or preservation.

I may say that this Department is undertake this work when the sites are no required by your Department, and you are willing them for this purpose.
